WRITE A LETTER

Use this page to write a letter to a friend, a parent, a brother or sister, your teacher, or anyone else who is important to you. In your letter, tell this person the most important thing you have learned about how to stand up to bullying and how you feel about it. Tell them how they could help you stand up to bullying. When you have finished the letter, you can read it out loud to the person.